

Exhibit No. 55
 Oswald's possessions included personal records and photographs which were carefully examined by investigators.

Exhibit No. 56
 Oswald's possessions found in his small boarding house room included a holster to fit his .38 pistol, Russian alphabet and phonics cards from which he studied Russian, and a history of the U.S.S.R. and communism.